version 2.1 – December the 9th, 2014

In addition to Gandi's General Service Conditions and General Terms and Conditions of Domain Name Registration, the registration and use of a domain name in the .NZ zone implies the acceptance of and compliance to the present special conditions contained herein. In case of conflict, the terms and conditions established in the present Special Conditions shall prevail over Gandi's General Service Conditions and General Terms and Conditions of Domain Name Registration, when registering a domain name in the .NZ zone.

All Your legal information and contracts can be viewed at any time via Our website. Capitalized terms have the definition attributed to them in Our General Terms and Conditions of Domain Name Registration. Specifically, "You" refers to the registrant of the domain name, and "We" designates Gandi. Your current contracts are freely available for viewing when You log into Your account at: <http://www.gandi.net/admin/contracts/>.

These contracts are binding between You and the .NZ Registry. The special conditions contained herein do not replace these rules, but rather form part of them. You acknowledge to have fully understood and accepted these rules on Our website.

Section .NZ.3. Special requirements

The special requirements are available at:
<http://www.gandi.net/domain/nz/info>

.NZ, .CO.NZ, .NET.NZ and .ORG.NZ domain names are open to any identifiable individuals over 18 years of age or properly constituted organizations.

.AC.NZ domain names are open to tertiary educational institutions and related organizations.

If You register a domain name in a sub-extension, the Registry strongly encourages You to register Your domain name under the third level category that most appropriately describes Your community of interest, to prevent any confusion.

Section .NZ.4. Rules of the launch of .NZ second level domain names

The opening of .NZ second level domain names runs from September 30th 2014 under the "first come first served" basis.

However, in the context of this opening, the holders of a .NZ third level domain name have a priority registration right ("PRE") to the corresponding .NZ second level domain name.

To be eligible to this right, the .NZ third level domain name has to be registered:

- before May 30th 2012 (group 1),
- between May 30th 2012 and the February 11st 2014, if no other identical domain name has been registered under an other sub-extension before or during this period (group 2).

Group 1: several holders of a same domain name registered under different sub-extensions can have a priority registration right to the same .NZ second level domain name.

- If only one holder is eligible (status "PRR"), he can:
 - register the corresponding .NZ second level domain name, via a transfer-in request on Our website with the "UDAI" (auth-code) associated to his third level domain name, or
 - reserve it, free of charge, for a period of 2 years via the Registry website: <http://anyname.nz> with the "UDAI" associated to his third level domain name. During this period the holder can choose to register the domain name via a Registrar. At the end of this period, if he does not have registered it, the domain name will become available to the registration under the "first come, first served" basis.
- If several holders are eligible (status: "Conflicted status"), the holders will have to, via the Registry website: <http://anyname.nz> with their "UDAI" associated to their .NZ third level domain name corresponding, indicate their intention on the .NZ second level domain name. The different holders are encouraged to find an amicable solution, the Registry offers also a mediation service.
 - Failing to find a solution via these mechanisms, the second level domain name will be unavailable to the registration.
 - If an agreement is found, the "winning" holder will be able to register the .NZ second level domain name via a Registrar with the "UDAI" associated to the corresponding third level domain name.

Group 2: the holder of a .NZ third level domain name can be eligible (status: "PRR") only if no other identical domain name has been registered under an other sub-extension before or during the concerned period. If only one holder is eligible (status "PRR"), he can:

- register the corresponding .NZ second level domain name, via a transfer-in request on Our website with the "UDAI" (auth-code) associated to his third level domain name, or
- reserve it, free of charge, for a period of 2 years via the Registry website: <http://anyname.nz> with the "UDAI" associated to his third level domain name. During this period the holder can choose to register the domain name via a Registrar. At the end of this period, if he does not have registered it, the domain name will become available to the registration under the "first come, first served" basis.

In any case, if You have a priority registration right, You must exercise this right within 6 months following the opening of .NZ second level domain name (that is until March 30th 2015). Failing to exercise Your right within this deadline, the .NZ second level domain name will become available to the registration under the "first come first served" rules.

The .NZ second level domain name that grants You a priority registration right must be kept while You do not have exercised Your right and while You do not have registered the corresponding second level domain name. Failing to keep Your domain name, Your right will be lost and the second level domain name will become available to the registration under the "first come first served rule" (if no other person has a priority registration right to this domain name).

For information, the Registry has implemented an online tool available at the following address: <http://anyname.nz> that indicates the status of the .NZ second level domain name searched (« PRR », « Conflicted Status », « available » ...) as well as, if applicable, the third level domain name(s) whose the holder(s) have a priority registration right to this second level domain name.

Upon the Expiration of the domain, We suspend (Hold) the domain name for 4 days, during which time all associated technical services are deactivated. Late renewal at normal price is possible during this period.

Exclusion of Liability

In accordance with the Registry rules, We exclude all liability We may have to You for any claim except where We may have acted in bad faith.

This exclusion also applies for the benefit of:

- InternetNZ and any other entity We are in any business relationship with,
- every officer, employee, contractor, agent of Us or any entity mentioned above,
- anyone else We get to perform Our duties under any contract You have with Us.

None of the persons specified above is liable or has to pay You for anything else in connection with or resulting from anything any of Us does or does not do, or delays in doing, whether or not it is contemplated or authorized by any contract You have with Us.

This exclusion applies whatever You are claiming for and in whatever way liability might arise.

This exclusion does not prevent You getting a court order requiring Us to do anything We have agreed to do for You and does not limit any rights You may have under the New Zealand Consumer Guarantees Act 1993.

Limitation of Our Liability

In accordance with the Registry rules, We have excluded all other liability We or any of the persons specified above may have to You. If any of those persons is ever liable to You and, for any reason, cannot rely on the exclusion of liability then this clause applies.

Where this clause applies, the maximum combined amount the persons specified above (together) will have to pay You and anyone else who uses the services We provide for You (together) is the amount of the last month's fee paid by You under this contract.

Section .NZ.14. Cancelling the Agreement

We may cancel or suspend this agreement by giving You one month notice.

The canceling of this contract does not affect any rights and responsibilities, which are intended to continue or come into force afterwards. These include the rights and duties under the clauses 5, 6, 7, 12, 13, 14 and 15.

Section .NZ.15. Each Clause Separately Binding

Each clause of this contract is separately binding.

If for any reason We, You, or any of the persons specified in Section 12 cannot rely on any clause, all other clauses of it are binding.

Section .NZ.16. Law and Jurisdiction

Unless We otherwise agree in writing, this contract contains all the terms of special conditions for domain name in the .NZ zone and continues to apply no matter where You are located at the time any of the services are provided or where You reside. - all Our services are provided under New Zealand law,
- any claim or dispute arising out of or in connection with this agreement must be instituted within 60 days from the date the relevant service was supplied to You,
- except as otherwise stated, You may take action against Gandi only in a New Zealand court,
