Gandi launches Gandi Mail!

- Paris, June 26th, 2007 - Gandi.net, the largest domain name registrar in France, accredited by ICANN for the registration of domains in .com, .net, .org, .biz, .info, .name, .fr, .eu, .be, and .us, announces the launching of Gandi Mail today.

Gandi Mail is the new free e-mail service that Gandi provides to everyone that has a domain name with Gandi.

Gandi Mail allows you to send and read your e-mail using a custom e-mail address, thus letting you have a more personal online identity through your domain name.

This service is accompanied by a Webmail interface (currently in Beta version) that benefits from an interface that is simple, trustworthy, and ergonomic.

Here are some of the advantages of this new tool:

- A mailbox with 1GB of storage space for your e-mails
- 1,000 forwarding addresses and unlimited alias addresses for overall usefulness
- Anti-spam and anti-virus protection
- Two possible means of accessing mail: through your usual e-mail client (Thunderbird, Mail, Outlook...) or from any computer anywhere in the world using Gandi Webmail (without a doubt the cleanest and easiest-to-use interface available!).
- Access in either expert or normal mode.

Also, in the coming weeks, Gandi will provide (as an option) beginning at 1 euro excl VAT per month:

- Unlimited mailboxes for your domain
- From 1 to 50 GB of additional storage space, depending on your needs
- Many more possibilities to come...

*"The launching of Gandi Mail has long been awaited by Gandi's customers. Today, we are proud to be able to offer a global mail solution that is fast, dependable, and easy to use! We are sure that this will be a success. In addition, this release marks the beginning of a second phase of product deployment and expansion such as access to additional options for those that would like them. This is illustrated once more by our philosophy and plan for development: that of offering the best service available for the lowest price for all our customers", announces Stephan Ramoin, President of Gandi.net.

About Gandi.net:

Created in 1999 and purchased in 2005 by an experienced managerial team, the French company Gandi manages more than 580,000 domain names for clients in 198 countries around the world, which places the company among the leading domain names registrars in France and sixth at the European level.

Today, Gandi is considered as a strong point of reference in the fields of domain name registrars. The company's goal is to create an alternative and independent line of Internet services based around domain names. Gandi is devoted to giving everyone tools for whatever their purpose is, whether it is to discuss their interests, present products or services, or to simply express themselves. In short, we enable people to lay claim to a personal online presence of professional quality.

Our clients range from individuals, associations and small companies, to public institutions (EU for example) and large multinational corporations. All have put confidence in us, and it's something we are deeply proud of.
